Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Learn an overview of the history and theories behind early childhood care and education
- Understand various domains and stages of development for children from birth to 3 years as these must be portrayed in the context of work experience of educators to help them reflect, assess and improve their current practices.
- Have a more in-depth understanding of the guiding principles, outcomes and sub-outcomes of the Early Years Development Framework (EYDF).
- Apply and implement the suggested practices stated in the EYDF in their work with young children and families.
- Equip with necessary skills and practical knowledge to plan and implement programmes, curriculum and environments for the following age groups:
 - Infants (2 to 18 months)
 - Toddlers (Above 18 to 30 months)
 - Nursery children (Above 30 to 36 months)
- Equip with the skills to engage in reflective practice
- Equip with relevant skills to work collaboratively with colleagues, parents and families, as well as key stakeholders in the community to support children's care, learning and development

“After being a stay-at-home mother for more than 18 years, taking up the WSQ ACEY was one of my life's best decisions. Not only did it open doors to many opportunities, enabling me to pursue a career in the childcare industry with ease, it also taught me to be a better educator.”

- Zuzana Amat (Class of 2015)
